the will be mainty devoted to the following objects.

First, to give information or all all that may be done in the legislative and executive department of the general government relating to the interests of religion.

In the legislative department it will embrace the spirit of all that may dean in Congress on this subject, including the service of chaplains in the House and Senate, with brief shocknow of the service of chaplains in the House and Senate, with brief shocknow of the service of chaplains in the House and Senate, with brief shocknow of the many be delivered before Congress.

In the executive department it will embrace all that relates to the chaplain service in the army and navy at military poets, and in campaigns, at military and naval schools, in sea going vessel, and receiving ships in navy yards, hospitals, and saltors' and solders' houses or asytums. By the facilities for obtaining information at the departments in Washington, and by correspondence with chaplains, we shall be abire to produce much that is interesting to the public.

The second object will be to collect statistical information, and to publish, under the head of cach State and Territory, all that relates to the general interests of religion. This will embrace the number of all othershy-recognized cleryment employed as pastors, or otherwise, the number of chapts dedicated and chards members, together with the number added annually to each distinct church organization. We shall enter upon such a plan of correspondence as will entable us to reach this information with more than approximate accuracy, together with the number added annually to each defined church organization. We shall enter upon such a plan of correspondence as will entable us to reach this information with more than approximate accuracy, together with the number of leading and the serious of features with many other facts and attainer relating to religious mainers which nover enter into the "checkules" of the Putted States census.

The third object will be to notic year, or the first number only to all who will enclose four letters of all periodicals and newspapers (excepting those which are only political and secular) who will give this prospectus one insertion, and send us the number containing it, we propose to advertise the name and locality of their paper on our cover through one year. To the presidents or principals of all literary institutions who subscribe for the Recorder we will insert the name and place of their institutions, as proposed to editors.

It is seen that the area of Kansas is nineteen thousand square miles greater than that of all New England, New York, and New Jersey; and that the area of Nebraska is ninety-five thousand miles greater than that of all the non-slaveholding states except California. Oregon to nearly equal in extent to all New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. It is possible that New Mexico and Mesilla will be embraced in one territorial organization by Congress at the present session, containing 285,000 equare miles—exceeding all New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Otio, Indiana, and Illinois. Washington exceeds in extent all New England and New York.
